LENTON SERMON SERIES

Approximately 40% of 16 to 29 year olds have opted out of being part of the Christian Church in America. You may be part of the above statistic or have a friend that is. You may have children or grandchildren who are part of the statistic above. The statistic is about people we love and care about, but it is also about people God loves very much. When the people surveyed were asked “Why?” they have opted out of church—they primarily replied that they didn’t want to be like the people they know who claim to be Christian. We say: “Perception is reality.” I want to change this perception and repentance is about change.

Lent began as a period of fasting and preparation for baptism by converts and then became a time for penance by all Christians. Lent is a season of soul-searching and repentance. It is a season for reflection and taking stock (Rev. Kenneth W. Collins). As a church, we will do some soul-searching together through our Lenten Sermon Series: The Church Repents. Repentance is a positive dynamic—it is part of the process for needed change to occur—it is a good thing.

EASTER EGGS

As the Lenten Season begins, you will find an Easter egg basket in the Narthex and Family Life Center. Each will be filled with “empty” Easter eggs. Please take an egg during the Lenten Season and fill it with coins, bills and/or a check. There will be children with Easter baskets on Easter morning waiting to collect the Easter eggs. The children will take the eggs to the altar during the Easter Worship Services. If you will not be here on Easter Sunday, please take the Easter egg to the office. It will be placed in the basket on Easter. The money collected will be used to help families send their children to Camp Wesley Woods.

♪ WORSHIP & MUSIC NOTES ♪

WHEN IN OUR MUSIC GOD IS GLORIFIED

Imagine worship without music. Although it is possible, and some folks do worship in that manner, for most of us who worship in the Protestant tradition worship would be lacking a vital element were music excluded.

Choosing music for worship services is an important part of the planning process. First of all our music must glorify God, who, after all, is the object of our worship. The hymn writer Fred Pratt Green penned the words of a wonderful hymn along those lines in 1971. Although we don't use this hymn a lot I believe it has much to say to us about our offerings of music in worship. It is worth our careful reading.

When in our music God is glorified,
and adoration leaves no room for pride,
it is as though the whole creation cried,
Alleluia!
How often, making music, we have found
a new dimension in the world of sound,

as worship moved us to a more profound Alleluia!
So has the Church, in liturgy and song,
in faith and love, through centuries of wrong,
borne witness to the truth in every tongue,
Alleluia!
And did not Jesus sing a psalm that night
when utmost evil strove against the Light?
Then let us sing, for whom he won the fight,
Alleluia!
Let every instrument be tuned for praise!
Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise!
And may God give us faith to sing always:
Alleluia!

May all of our music glorify
Him who gave us the gift of music with which to praise and worship.

It is so exciting to be a part of the UMChurch and it is exciting to be a part of the Holston Conference! Our Holston Conference Discipleship Team is about to launch new ministries this year and we want you to know about them!

We will partner with both financial and hand-on support for the new Disciple Bible studies to be offered in Virginia Prisons. Susan Montgomery, lay-person from Concord UMC is developing a Cradle to Prison ministry. The conference will offer Leadership Holston this August, a 9-month training program for 12 lay and 12 clergy, who will study about the church and the conference and develop leadership skills along the way! We're looking at a new way for churches to help churches with a brand new idea from Reece Fauscett pastor in Trentville, Georgia!

100 Gather for Event Focused on Financial Crisis

About 100 people joined us Saturday Feb. 21 for the worship and workshops that comprised our Surviving A Financial Crisis event. Many of those present were community members who had heard about the event from friends or advertisements. Here are a few of the comments that were made by people attending the event. "I'm going through bankruptcy and until now I didn't know where to turn." "I'm in the midst of foreclosure and I'm grateful for these resources." "I still have a job for now, but I've been wondering how I should be using my money." Thank you to all the volunteers, ministry teams, workshop leaders, and staff members who made this event a blessing for our community!

REAL LOVE

¹⁶ We know what real love is because Jesus gave up his life for us. So we also ought to give up our lives for our brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ If someone has enough money to live well and sees a brother or sister in need but shows no compassion—how can God’s love be in that person? ¹⁸ Dear children, let’s not merely say that we love each other; let us show the truth by our actions.

I John 3:16-18

The late cultural prophet and philosopher, Francis Schaeffer, said that the mark of a Christian was love. I talk a great deal about love because the Bible does. The Bible is the most realistic book that I know of. The New Testament was written in koine’ or common greek. Greek was a very precise language for the Greeks loved precision. They had four words for love: storge, eros, phileo, and agape. Storge is the love of the familiar and the commonplace: “I love my reading chair.” Eros includes erotic love, sexual love, and romantic love. Phileo is the love of friendship. It is a highly regarded form of love. Agape is the highest form of love. The early Christians took this term and elevated it as the “God-kind” of love, sacrificial love. It is the love that seeks the other’s greatest good. It many times has nothing to do with feelings; it has to do with the will and resolve. It has to do with discerning the greatest good on behalf of the beloved. As Scott Peck has written: “Love agonizes.” This kind of love can change the world.

“I AM SO PROUD OF OUR CHURCH”

I witnessed this kind of love this past weekend with our Surviving A Financial Crisis event and the workshops that followed. I am so proud of our church for reaching out to those who have need. I am so proud of our church demonstrating compassion. I saw many faces I did not know. I heard that there were folks here who were facing bankruptcy, looking for jobs, and had homes facing foreclosure. Church, thank you for being the kind of church that shows real love, genuine love, agape love through actions. Thank you for supporting such events. Thank you for sharing your gifts and graces to make such events possible. Church, I saw your “mark” this weekend—for I saw love.
